

Cuttlefish Style

K Instruction-Relevant
Query Tokens

Q-Former Style

M Fixed-Length
Query Tokens

$$D(c_1, \dots, c_K) > \epsilon (1 - K/M)$$

Figure. P3: Comparison between adaptive instruction-relevant query construction and fixed-length query compression.